All NYU students as well as any students from institutions in the NY metro area must have an interview with Professor Ellen Morris during the month of April as well as submit two letters of reference. Please contact Ellen (em129@nyu.edu) well in advance of the deadline.

All other candidates must submit three letters of recommendation and list the faculty members and their contact information, below.

All letters may be submitted via email from your reference to Ellen Morris (em129@nyu.edu) and should be from instructors who can provide us with an informed assessment of your academic and personal maturity as relevant to this project:

Do you have any health conditions (physical or mental) that might affect your participation in the program? If so, please detail. Keep in mind that the program at times requires significant physical exertion and endurance of living and working conditions substantially less comfortable than those prevalent in developed countries. All applicants should be adventurous, flexible, and comfortable around others.

Lastly, please tell us how you heard of this program

---

Also, if we were to develop a Fall 2011 program would you be interested in enrolling? (at present there is no Fall program, but we are considering developing one).

---

Please include a completed security form, clear copy of a valid passport and 8 passport-sized photos (these may be produced on heavy paper on a color printer).

For questions regarding the application please contact Project Administrator, Elizabeth Bulls at eb100@nyu.edu.
