

New York University
Excavations at Amheida
Participant Application Form

After filling out this form completely, return it to Elizabeth Bulls, NYU, Institute for the Study of the Ancient World, 15 East 84th Street, New York, NY 10028. We will begin reviewing applications on Friday, May 8, 2009. Attach to it (1) a copy of your current curriculum vitae, (2) a transcript of your work at your current institution, and (3) a statement (not over 1000 words) about your background in archaeology (including previous field experience) and the study of the ancient world, your reasons for wishing to participate in the Excavations at Amheida, and what contribution you hope to make to the excavations.

Name _____

Address(es) _____

phone number(s) _____

email _____

School _____ Planned year of graduation _____

University or College if not NYU _____

Major(s)/concentration(s)/graduate department _____

(For graduate students: previous degrees _____)

Coursework relevant to Archaeology, ancient Egypt, and the ancient world more generally (list courses and describe contents if the title is not informative):

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Previous field experience (list; describe in more detail in personal statement):

_____	_____
_____	_____

Specific skills relevant to the excavation (surveying, drafting, database design and maintenance, photography, etc.):

_____	_____
_____	_____

Give a list of your previous foreign travel experience:

_____	_____
_____	_____

All NYU students as well as any students from institutions in the NY metro area must have an interview with Professor Ellen Morris as well as submit two letters of reference. Please contact Ellen (em129@nyu.edu) well in advance of the deadline.

List the names, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers of those faculty members below.

All other candidates must submit three letters and list the faculty members and their contact information, below.

All letters may be submitted via email from your reference to Ellen Morris (em129@nyu.edu) and should be from instructors who can provide us with an informed assessment of your academic and personal maturity as relevant to this project:

Do you have any health conditions that might affect your participation in the program, which will require significant physical exertion, full mobility, and endurance at times of living and working conditions substantially less comfortable than those prevalent in developed countries? If so, please detail.

Please include a completed security form and 8 passport-sized photos (these may be produced on heavy paper on a color printer).

For questions regarding the application please contact Project Administrator, Elizabeth Bulls at eb100@nyu.edu.